"BETWEEN THE SHEETS"

october 2006

President's Rock Talk

Welcome to the 2006-2007 curling season. We are excited to see an increase in most leagues and many new members.

Welcome back to Club Manager Val Hierlmeier and Ice Technician Lorne Rawluk. New to our staff this year are Assistant Ice Technician Jennifer McMillan, Kitchen Manager Lucille Bailie, Bar Manager Buddy Beley and Bookkeeper Amber McCalmon. We have a great staff this season and we are looking forward to a successful year.

Watch for the schedule of events calendar outlining monthly commitments and new ideas.

Have a great curling season and if you have any questions or concerns please feel free to talk to any board member or to our Manager Val.

What's New

The curling club has received a considerable face lift to the downstairs. A big thankyou to Christina Haggith, Doug McLennan, Jerry Husar and Buddy Beley as well as a host of other volunteers who spent endless hours renovating the club.

Let's Make Ice

Lorne Rawluk is returning as Head Ice Technician and Jennifer McMillan is our new Assistant Ice Technician.

Coordinators Wanted

We are looking for coordinators for our Junior curling league. Please contact Val at 459-7007. Welcome to Pat Holden, our Little Rock and Super Rock Coordinator.

Bingo Not Viable

The St. Albert Curling will no longer be participating in bingos as a fundraiser, as they are no longer bring any net funds to the club. Thankyou to Myrne Yaremko, the seniors and all who assisted with our bingos.

Message from the Board

The executive of the St. Albert Curling Club wishes you all a great year of curling for the 2006-2007 season.

2006 Windup

The inaugural windup event held at the curling club in May 2006 was a huge success. About 150 people attended this year's event.

Please plan to attend our event in May 2007.
